

Little Women

Meet the March Sisters

Meg, Jo, Beth, and Amy are very different. That is part of what makes the family interesting.

Let's talk about the story

1. Which sister would you most want to spend an afternoon with? What would you do together?

2. What is something Jo cares about a lot?

3. What is something Beth does that shows kindness?

4. How are two of the sisters alike, even though they may not seem alike at first?

Little Women

Meet the March Sisters

Keep it simple. Answer in your own words, and have fun with the story.

Plan a March family afternoon

Choose one activity that all four sisters could enjoy together. Explain what each sister might like about it.

Quick story check

1. Who makes you laugh most?

2. Who would you ask for advice?

3. What is one moment that shows the sisters care about each other?

For the grown-up: Let the child answer from memory first. If they want to check the book afterward, that is part of the learning too. Conversation matters more than perfect wording.