

Peter Pan

A Day in Neverland

Neverland is full of places to explore and trouble to avoid. Think about the adventure as if you were going along for one day.

Let's talk about the story

1. Where in Neverland would you want to go first?

2. Who would you choose as your guide: Peter, Wendy, Tinker Bell, or someone else? Why?

3. What is one danger you would want to stay far away from?

4. What is one part of Neverland you can picture clearly from the story?

Peter Pan

A Day in Neverland

Keep it simple. Answer in your own words, and have fun with the story.

Plan your Neverland day

Choose three stops for your day in Neverland. Write what you would do at each stop and who you would bring with you.

Quick story check

1. What does Peter seem to enjoy most?

2. What does Wendy care about most?

3. Would you want to stay in Neverland forever? Why or why not?

For the grown-up: Let the child answer from memory first. If they want to check the book afterward, that is part of the learning too. Conversation matters more than perfect wording.
