

Treasure Island

Adventure Check-In

There is treasure, danger, secrets, and plenty of people who may or may not be trustworthy. See how much of the adventure you remember.

Let's talk about the story

1. What starts Jim's adventure?

2. Who do you trust most in the story? What makes you trust that person?

3. What is one clue, object, or secret that becomes important later?

4. Which part of the journey feels most dangerous?

Treasure Island

Adventure Check-In

Keep it simple. Answer in your own words, and have fun with the story.

Captain's log

Write a four-sentence captain's log for one exciting day in the story. Include where you are, what happened, who was there, and what you think might happen next.

Quick story check

1. Would you go looking for the treasure if you were Jim?

2. Who would you want on your crew?

3. What would you put in a treasure chest of your own?

For the grown-up: Let the child answer from memory first. If they want to check the book afterward, that is part of the learning too. Conversation matters more than perfect wording.
